MISCELLANEOUS NEWS.

The jury in the case of the State, use of Adeline Price, widow, and others, her children, vs. the Northern Central Railway Company; action to recover damages for the alleged killing of Robert Price, of Baltimore county, Md., on Saturday night, May 26, near Cockeysville, which occupied the Superior Court for several days last week, yesterday rendered a verdict for the plaintiff- of fifteen thousand dollars damages.

The New York committee in the steamboat interest had an interview with the Secretary of the Treasury yesterday, when they urged the suspension of the law compelling the use of a particular kind of safety valve. The committee is composed of Messrs. T. Cornell, and Mc-Reynold, and they represent $200,000,000— improve their personal appearance an hundred more or less—capital. The Secretary has given fold. WORK .- Most people are hardly aware of what they can do when their energies and capabilities are put to the test. We were reminded of this fact the other day, when we learned what had been done by a gentleman sixty years of age during the present season. Asher Messick, residing about two miles from Harrisonburg, has done the following work this spring, with no other assistance in the world than the help afforded by his daughter and New York. another lady, who assisted in planting his corn. He has ploughed at least twenty acres of ground, (some of it very rough, rocky and hilly,) sowed eleven bushels of oats and harrowed it in, planted one and a half bushels of corn, (say fourteen acres,) put a quarter of an acre in potatoes, made 100 rails, and put up about 200 panels of fence, besides attending to his other business, such as sheep-shearing, going to mill, to the blacksmith's shop, and to Harrisonburg to attend to his business in that city. He has done all this work without much extra effort, and dosen't look as if it had hurt him a bit. We commend the example of this "old rebel" to some of our nice young men who lounge around the towns doing nothing, because they are not able to do hard work !-

MR. SUMNER'S SPEECH.—The New York Times of yesterday says: "We have received proofs of Mr. Sumner's speech, about which we have lately heard so much, on the cession of Russian America. It is of stupendous size, and is doubtless the best account in existence of the subject in question. It begins with the discovery of the country, by the navigator Behring, and goes down to the treaty of annexation. It is illustrated by numerous classical and poetical quotations—by scraps from Cicero, Webster, Milton, Byron, Campbell, Goethe and numberless others, only less great. It offers us hints in mental philosophy, botany, mineralogy and international law. All persons interested in these or collateral topics, or in our new acquisition of Russian America, will doubtless be anxious to see the speech. We Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Paint Brushes, White-regret that its length renders it impossible to wash Brushes, Shoe Brushes, Lamps, Coal Oil, regret that its length renders it impossible to give it to our readers. It would fill something like sixty columns, and the Times contains but fifty-six.

Rockingham Register.

THE FEW WHO MAKE MONEY. - A letter from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue published in Mr. Atkinson's pamphlet on the subject of revenue, states that out of the whole population of the United States only 450,000 persons paid a tax upon incomes,—in other words, that out of the thirty-five millions of our people, less than half a million have incomes of more than $600 a year. Those who have less than that evidently need it all to live on, and thus spend all they earn. The great mass of the people, therefore, pay taxes only indirectly, through the duties or the imposts imposed on the articles they consume; and if these are increased, their wages must be increased also, else they cannot live.

EXPENSES.—The Hartford Times makes the following estimate of one of the smallest of the BAKER, PLAIN POUND AND FRUIT CAKE, OR ORNAMENTED, would respect the solidity could be supported by the cost of military government in the South: "A single 'military department' at ully solicit a call from the public before purchasing elsewhere. Pound, Fruit and Ornathe South has 300 boards of Registration .-They have already held their sessions for weeks. They will hold them for many weeks to come. Each member is paid eight dollars a day. Estimating ten members upon each, board, including all their runners and attendants and 300 boards to each of the five districts and we have a daily expense of one hundred and twenty thousand dollars ($120,000) for these boards alone." (?)

NOVEL FEATURE. -The New York Tribune says: A novel feature in the Boston programme of Anniversary Week will be a Free Meeting, at which the various Radical sects which have existence outside of organized denominations will appear, or will be asked to appear, in the persons of their representatives, who will give voice to their peculiar ideas; will make contessions, compare notes, incuire how tar their faiths proceed from common centres and run in parallel lines, and consider the practicability and the expediency of forming a loose working fellowship for ends purely moral and spiritual.
